Governors Also Will Be Chosen in Twenty-Eight Commonwealths.

PROHIBITION ISSUE IN FLORIDA

Oklahoma, South Dakota and Washington to Cast Ballots on Quettion of Woman Suffrage.

Election of state officers, judges of the supreme court, railroad commissioners, etc., will be held in thirty-eight states Tuesday, November 8. Maine, Vermont, Arkansas and George have held their state elections, but the two latter states will elect representatives in Congress. Maryland, Mississippi, Virginia and West Virginia, likewise, will elect representatives. Maine and Vermont already have chosen their representatives and state officers. In twenty-eight of the states governors and full state tickets are to be elected. In nine others, justices of the supreme court and minor officials are to be chosen, while in Indiana state officers, except governor, will be elected.

A number of states will elect members of the legislature. The terms of thirty United States senators expire March 3, 1911. The legislatures of Alabama, Maryland and Vermont have elected their The Sixty-second Congress will be elect-

South Carolina and Louisiana have each but one ticket—the democratic.

The prohibition party has tickets in twenty-five states, the socialists in thirty-four, the socialist-labor in eight. The Independence League has a full state ticket in New York; the Keystone and the industrial party each has a ticket in Pennsylvania; the people's independent (populist) has one in Nebraska, and the American party (anti-Mormon) one in Utah. South Carolina and Louisiana have Constitutional Amendments.

Numerous proposed constitutional amendments and questions of various kinds are to be submitted in many of the states. Prohibition is an issue in Florida, Missouri and Oregon, and in those states proposed amendments to the constitution prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors will be voted upon. In Texas the incoming legislature will submit to the voters for approval or rejection a constitutional amendment providing for prohibition. Oklahoma will vote, incidentally, on a proposed constitutional amendment substituting local option for the present sys-tem of state-wide prohibition. Three states, Oklahoma, South Dakota and Washington, will vote directly on the question of granting suffrage to women, while in Oregon a proposed amendment to the constitution grants to all taxpayers, regardless of sex, the right of suffrage.

The largest number of questions to be voted on in any one state is in Oregon. There thirty-two initiative and referendum measures will be on the ballot for approval or rejection. Included in this number, besides the proposed suffrage and prohibition amendments to the constitution, is a bill, proposed by initiative petition, amending the Oregon primary law, and exending its provisions to presidential nominations, allowing voters to designate their choice for President and Vice President, providing for direct nomination of party candidates for presidential electors for election by party dential electors, for election by party voters of delegates to their party na-tional nominating conventions.

Appropriation for Conservation. One of the suggested amendments to the Oregon constitution proposed by initlative petition, provides for verdicts by three-fourths of a jury in civil cases. shother proposed amendment increases the initiative and referendum and recall powers of the people. Conservation of natural resources will be passed upon by voters of Wisconsin in the shape of a proposed amendment to the constitution, authorizing the state to make annual appropriation for acquiring, preserving and developing water power and forests of the state. In Minnesota a proposed constitutional amendment authorizes the legisature to exempt from taxation lands of private persons to be used for purposes of reforestation.
